AI Report Analysis

We conducted a comprehensive analysis of your search presence for "wigs" across a 4.5-mile radius, mapping 81 points to measure how often Orna Wigs Couture Salon appears in the top-tier results. While you maintained a consistent search presence by appearing in 77 of 81 measured points (95.06%), your Share of Local Voice (SoLV) sits at 39.51%. This indicates that while you are frequently showing up in the results, you are not yet securing a top-three spot in the Local Pack consistently enough to capture the majority of search traffic.

Your performance is strongest in the north and northeast sectors, but we identified specific gaps in the south and southeast, where competitors like The Hair Factory LLC and Ruby Renee Wigs are currently outranking you. To improve your standing, we recommend deploying localized content and focused citation efforts in these southern regions to better align with local search intent. Furthermore, the competitive landscape is favorable for your growth; your superior 4.8-star rating gives you a distinct advantage over rivals like Cookie's Wigs and Blush PRO Beauty. By systematically increasing your review volume, you can capitalize on these vulnerabilities and distance yourself from competitors like The DollPrint Beauty Bar and Lena's Wigs.

Refining your local SEO strategy by targeting these southern gaps and leveraging your higher rating will be the key to shifting your search presence into a more commanding position in the Local Pack. Focusing on these high-impact areas will provide the clearest path toward increasing your overall Share of Local Voice.
